A MOTBER'S TERRIBLE DEED. On the eve of reconciliation with her father, a wealthy retired Obicago wholesale dealer, from whom she had been estranged for more than 12 years, Mrs. G. H. Ahing, wife of a wealthy Chinsman in Plano, a small town near Chicago, early yesterday cut the threat of her three-year-old girl, gave poi-on ther three sons, took a dose herself, and then stood on the railroad track until a fast train rau her down, killing her in-

Ino woman had made an engagement with her uncle to meet him in Chicago vesterday.

He was going with her to her father, Jalius Ehler, in an effort to bring about a return to relations that existed before er marrage to the Celestial.

Fear that she was about to be decapitated by Chinese friends of her husban is raid to have been responsible for the dent in Chins that demanded the be nesding of an unfaithful wife. Mrs. Ahing denied that she had ever violated her marriage vows, but that certain Chinamen were slandering her and that she feared death at their hands.

The little girl, Ella, three years o age, was a leep when her mother cut her throat. The wound was deep and she died instantly. Mrs. Adiog then went into another room, where the boys, Criss. twelve; Walter, ten, and Herbert, five, were seeping. She told them that she was going to give them medicine and induced them to drink the poison. The boys were taken to a hospital, where physicians are battling for their lives.

FILTHY BAKERIES.

"Clothes, machinery and utensils unpeakably filthy."

"In filthy condition."

"Dogs sleeping in barrels in bakery." "A blot on civilization and a menace o health."

"The output a menace to health." The above are a few of the terms used by Labor Commissioner Doberty in describing some of the bakeries in Virginia, and are contained in a report submitted to Governor Swanson vesterday. The language repeated by Doherty is taken from the reports made to him by his deputy, J. B. Clinedinst, formerly of Newport News.

This report follows a controversy following a report made by Richmond papers based on assertions made by Clinedidst and subsequently denied by him before a Norfolk grand jury, the report in question having specified that the bad conditions existed in the coast cities. The report does not specify which these conditions were found. The coast cities are exonorated by the Norfolk grand jury on the testimony of Clinedinst, in spite of the language of the report as submitted.
